

When we were younger

June 22, 1947

Television's Amos 'n' Andy appeared on stage at Majestic Theatre.

Juanita Howard of 1625 E. Franklin St. was crowned queen of the East Side Business Men's Carnival.

June 22, 1957

The Tri-State Amateur Radio Society Inc. will observe the 21st annual Field Day with a nationwide radio emergency test.

Sixteen Girl Scouts will receive the highest Catholic award in Scouting, the Ad Deum Per Mariam award, at St. Benedict Catholic Church.

June 22, 1967

Snyder Buick Inc. has moved from 212 N.W. Fourth St. to its new complex at Lincoln Avenue and Eighth Street.

The Rev. Joseph Emerson, new superintendent of the Evansville Methodist district, was elected vice president of the University of Evansville board of trustees.

STARTED IN 1936

When we were younger

Feb. 7, 1947

The House approved a amendment that would limit persons elected to the presidency to two terms.

Eighteen Evansville "hams" have met to form an amateur radio club.

Feb. 7, 1957

Seventy over-the-road drivers have received the A&H Truck Lines safe driving award.

Paul C. More, Evansville lock and dam operator, has been cited by the district engineer's office for outstanding performance during 1946.

Feb. 7, 1967

Area Boy Scouts will celebrate the 57th anniversary of the organization today thru Feb. 13.

Fire damaged the office and kitchen of the Merry-Go-Round Restaurant on Highway 41-North this morning.

EVANSVILLE PRESS

When we were younger

June 2, 1947

A $10 million contract to keep the nation's atomic bombers flying for the next two years has been awarded to Boeing Airplane Co. by the Army Air Force.

The nation closed out one of the most tragic holiday weekends in history with 461 accidental deaths.

June 2, 1957

A four-story office and club building of advanced-style architecture will be constructed at 20 Main St. by Petroleum Realty Corp.

Tri-State Amateur Radio Society will start classes for anyone wishing to become an amateur radio operator.

June 2, 1967

Sara Whitfield has been named executive director of the YMCA succeeding Dorothy J. Goebel.

A contract for $588,000 was awarded to Feigel Construction Corp. to build a 1,060-car parking facility for the Civic Center.

Smead

SEMIQUEL PRESSBOARD CONVEY